

WE ARE HIRING!

Excavation Leader
(m/f/d)

PROARCH

Who we are...

For us, archaeology is both a profession and a calling. We see our central task in understanding and preserving the heritage of humankind. This passion for archaeology is embedded in the services we provide for our customers. As one of the leading scientific excavation companies in southern Germany, based in Ingolstadt, it is our goal to reconcile customer requests, monument protection and research.

What we are looking for...

- ➔ Master, Magister or doctorate in prehistory, provincial Roman archaeology or archeology of the Middle Ages, possibly additional paleoanthropological training
- ➔ Min. 24 months excavation leader experience
- ➔ Independent work ethic
- ➔ Very good knowledge of German (C1 or native speaker) and English
- ➔ Motivation
- ➔ Good organizational skills to manage your own team
- ➔ Deployment in southern Germany
- ➔ Driving license B for cars/minibuses is mandatory
- ➔ Experience with Bavarian documentation standards (Vorgaben zur Dokumentation archäologischer Ausgrabungen in Bayern, BLfD April 2020) desirable

What we offer...

- ➔ Permanent position with social security contributions (health insurance, pension etc.)
- ➔ Support for further academic education
- ➔ Appropriate compensation
- ➔ Extensive company fleet for driving to the excavation
- ➔ Flexible working time accounts
- ➔ Open-minded and friendly team
- ➔ Good connection to public transport
